FEPC Kept Pigeonholed By Tie Vote In Rules Group

Republicans And 4 Southern Demos Block Action

Washington, Jan. 24—(AP)—Southern Democrats, assisted by a northern Republican, blocked house rules committee action today on the bill to set up a fair employment practices commission.

A 5 to 5 vote kept the bill bottled up in the committee and spurred backers to a renewed effort to force action by other means. The measure, designed to combat racial or religious discrimination in employment, is a cornerstone of President Truman's civil rights program.

The vote was taken behind closed doors, but there was no effort to conceal how the members voted, which was as follows:

For Approval: Sabath of Illinois, Madden of Indiana, McSweeney of Ohio and Delany of New York, Democrats; Herter of Massachusetts, Republican.

Against Approval: Against approval: Cox of Georgia, Smith of Virginia, Colmer of Mississippi and Lyle of Texas, Democrats; Brown of Ohio, Republican.

Absent: Allen of Illinois and Wadsworth of New York, Republicans. Both the absentees reportedly are against the bill.

Of the other votes, only Brown's surprised observers. The Ohioan had been listed informally as ready to vote to send the bill to the House floor.

He told newsmen after today's session that he voted for delay in order to protect his absent colleagues and to "protect speaker, Rayburn, who said yesterday this is not the time to consider this bill."

Wrong "Atmosphere" The reference was to Rayburn's refusal to give the FEPC bill priority yesterday. Rayburn had said the heat engendered by last week's fight over a proposed House rules change left the wrong "atmosphere" for consideration of the FEPC bill at this time.

Brown retained the right to have the FEPC bill called up again in the rules committee by moving to reconsider today's vote. That means that he can demand another vote when Wadsworth and Allen are present.

But, since it takes at least seven votes to pry a bill out of the rules committee, it was believed unlikely that the bill ever would leave its pigeonhole.

In an effort to pass the committee, proponents of the bill, led by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., (D-Lib. N.Y.), are concentrating on a drive for 218 signatures to a discharge petition. They had 79 this afternoon but the rush of signers, started yesterday, had slowed down.

Cheaper Welfare State Promised By Churchill Party

London, Wednesday, Jan. 25—(AP)—Winston Churchill's Conservatives promised today to give Britain a cheaper welfare state and more freedom if they win the general election Feb. 23.

In a 7,300-word platform, the party promised to maintain the social services at less cost, halt the Labor government's nationalization of industry, slash government expense, cut taxes and whittle away controls.

On foreign affairs, it said the party would work with "the United States to help by all means all countries in Europe, Asia or elsewhere to resist the aggression of communism by open attack or secret penetration."

The main clash is on the issue of public ownership of industry.

The Labor platform, issued a week ago, promised that a Labor government would nationalize the cement industry, sugar refineries, waterworks, meat slaughtering and wholesaling and basic minerals.

Shores Seek To Adopt Baby Boy

Chicago, Jan. 24—(P)—Comedian Willie Shore and his wife, Anita, sought the superior court's permission today to adopt a six-month-old boy.

Their lawyer, Michael A. Gerrard, said the mother is unable to support the baby and that the infant has been in the Shores' care for several months. He said the mother has consented to the adoption.

Shore, who is currently appearing at a downtown theatre here, sought a court order naming the baby Daniel Scott Shore.

INDIA CLEARS WAY New Delhi, India, Jan. 24—(P)—India cleared the last formality to becoming a sovereign Democratic Republic today when the constituent assembly unanimously elected Dr. Rajendra Prasad, 64-year-old son of a rich peasant, as first president.

Jury Picked To Try Girl In 'Mercy Death' Of Father

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 24—(P)—Four women with daughters about the age of 21-year-old Carol Ann Paignt were chosen as jurors today to try Carol Ann in the "Mercy Killing" of her cancer-ridden father.

The tall, blonde defendant, charged with second degree murder, was calm throughout the opening day of her trial.

Her lawyer said she was too stunned to understand what she was doing when she shot to death her incurably ill father in a Stamford, Conn., hospital last Sept. 23.

Selection of a jury proceeded slowly.

The last two jurors picked today were Mrs. Judith A. Menhard of Greenwich, Conn., who has five children including two grown girls; and Mrs. Margaret Newman of Danbury, mother of two girls.

Eight additional jurors remain to be picked.

Chief Defense Lawyer David Goldstein and State's Attorney Lorwin W. Willis quickly unfolded the pattern of the case.

To Veneman after Veneman Goldstein asserted that the defense would not question that Carol Ann shot and killed her 50 year old father, Sergeant Carl W. Paignt of the Stamford police.

Using her father's service pistol, she fired a bullet through his head as he lay in a hospital bed after she had been told that he was hopelessly sick with cancer.

The news so shocked her, said Goldstein, that she temporarily lost the mental capacity to tell right from wrong.

For the state, Willis inquired of each prospective juror whether "sympathy for this woman in her predicament" or for her family would sway them. He also asked several whether they belonged to any organization which subscribed to the theory that people can be put out of the way.

For limited economic assistance but said the secretary did not suggest how the money should be spent.

But a Republican committee member who asked that his name not be used said later that the Chinese nationalists have asked $550,000,000 for general economic purposes and for currency stabilization.

He said he doubts whether the committee would approve any funds for currency stabilization but reported that the group figured that $28,000,000 to $30,000,000 "will take care" of the island's economic needs.

This money presumably would come from a $106,000,000 China aid fund which congress approved in 1948, but which is due to be turned back to the treasury February 15 if it is not used before then.

On that point this committee member reported that Acheson proposed extending the life of this fund until June 30, 1951 and earmarking it for use in the "general area of China."

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.), one of the chief critics of the administration's China policy, already has introduced a bill extending the China aid money until next June 30.

Whether Acheson's backing of limited economic help for Formosa will satisfy GOP critics who have been urging military intervention remains to be seen.

Reports Discovery Of Mount Of Iron Ore In Venezuela

Washington, Jan. 24—(P)—A mountain of iron has been discovered in Venezuela which may have as large a tonnage as the famous Hull-Rust mine in the Mesabi range in Minnesota.

The mountain, called Cerro Bolivar, is part of a range which has immense ore deposits.

That what the Senate-House economic committee was told today by John G. Munson, United States Steel Corp. vice president in charge of new raw materials.

In a supplementary statement, U.S. Steel said:

"The Venezuelan ore is of higher iron content than that found in the Mesabi range." The statement said that the iron content in some spots will run higher than 60 per cent.

Widowed Mother Wins $201,042 With 14c Ticket

Hull, Eng., Jan. 24—(P)—A widow mother of three children wept for joy today when she learned she had won $71,801 ($201,042) in a football pool.

The money, which is tax free, was won on a one shilling (14-cent) coupon.

The widow is Mrs. Enid Tute, whose husband died two years ago. She has been working as a domestic to augment her pension and an 18 year old daughter Joyce, has been working in a dry goods store. The other children are Keith, 12, and John, four.

Mrs. Tute's winning combination was based on the birthdays of the three children.

2 CHICAGO L'S HIT IN LOOP: 6 INJURED

Chicago, Jan. 24—(P)—Two trains collided on the loop elevated structure at the height of the afternoon rush-hour today. Some six persons were slightly injured.

The collision occurred at Wabash and Randolph streets. A Ravenswood "L" train rammed the rear of a North Shore electric train.

All those reported injured are Chicagoans.

75c Minimum Wage Law Goes Into Effect Today

Washington, Jan. 25—(Wednesday)—The new 75-cent minimum wage law went into effect today with the blessing of President Truman.

The president hailed the changes in the 12-year old wage-hour law as being "dictated by social justice" and a step that will bring "great and lasting benefits."

The 75-cent hourly minimum wage is an 87 1/2 per cent boost from the old law's 40-cent minimum. It applies, as do all the law's provisions, to workers employed in interstate commerce or in production of goods for commerce.

This and other changes represent a general overhauling of the new deal law which established a floor under wages, a 40-hour ceiling on the regular work week, and restrictions on employment of child labor.

Mr. Truman said the law gave more purchasing power to low-paid workers and the 40-hour week limitation spread the work to "put more people on payrolls," thus contributing to a "revival of our economy."

Two CIO union leaders, Jacob Potofsky of the clothing workers and Emil Rieve of the textile workers, also hailed the new wage-hour law.

But they coupled it with a call for an early effort to boost the minimum again, this time to a flat dollar an hour. Both also called for broadened coverage of the law.

Perhaps with these new union demands in mind, Mr. Truman said he has asked Secretary of Labor Tobin to "keep me informed on the operation of the new law."

The statute represents a compromise. It gave organized labor the 75-cent minimum it demanded, but it also gave employers a simpler, less-embracing law.

Illinois News Briefs

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—The Mississippi Valley Telephone company today asked the Illinois Commerce Commission for temporary rate increases pending disposition of its request for permanent higher rates.

D. C. Wood, commission examiner, said the company's motion would be placed before the entire commission as soon as possible.

Carbondale, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, last night criticized the Brannan farm plan as "a consumer subsidy program."

Shuman told the Southern Illinois Horticultural society that the program offered by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan "was conceived and written by CIO economists."

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—The state division of architecture and engineering today awarded a $24,895 contract to Mayfair Construction Co. for rehabilitating the lodge and guest cabins at Starved Rock state park.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—Southern breezes today put Peoria temperatures up to 63 degrees, an all-time high for Jan. 24. The previous high for the date was 61 in 1931.

Chicago, Jan. 24—(P)—Senator L. Marovitz of Chicago and William J. Tuohy, former state's attorney, were nominated by Cook county Democrats today to fill circuit and superior court vacancies.

Marovitz was slated to replace Circuit Judge Philip J. Finnegan, who on the U.S. court of appeals, Tuohy was recommended for the superior court, replacing the late Judge John M. O'Connor.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—Governor Stevenson today named Ernst W. Puttkammer of Chicago as a member and chairman of the Illinois Displaced Persons committee.

Puttkammer, a professor of law at the University of Chicago, succeeds Chauncey W. McCormick who resigned. The committee was established to survey economic opportunities for displaced persons.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—The president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce says top American Legion leaders have "misconstrued and distorted" his statements in connection with the chamber's support of the Hoover commission report.

Clifford D. Cooper of Alhambra, Calif., in a statement last night at the close of the chamber's national executive committee meeting declared that attacks by top leaders of the Legion have been "so violent" that "I must speak in answer to these charges."

East St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—Detectives were checking the story today of George Jines, 33, found stabbed in the back last night under what police said were mysterious circumstances.

Jines told officials he injured himself in a fall. His condition was termed critical.

Police records show that on July 11, 1944, Jines appeared at a Springfield, Ill., hospital suffering a gunshot wound in the head. He said he was shot by two unidentified men.

Quincy, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—The city council here said that a voluntary board be set up to help settle Quincy's bus strike, now in its sixth week.

The council last night suggested that a representative of labor, one industry and one professional man be named as a board to meet with representatives of the union and the Quincy City Lines to settle the strike.

NEW POSTMASTER NAMED

Washington, Jan. 24—(P)—President Truman has nominated William H. Watson to be postmaster at Prospect Heights, Ill. If the senate approves, Watson will succeed H. L. Galbraith, who resigned.

Spinach kept on ice experimentally for two days gained 22 per cent in weight.

TRUMAN WON'T ATTEND FRIEND'S FUNERAL

Washington, Jan. 24—(P)—President Truman, the White House disclosed today, will be unable to attend the funeral of his long-time friend, Mayor Roger Sherman of his home town of Independence, Mo.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross announced this afternoon that official commitments will prevent Mr. Truman from attending the services at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in Independence.

Roving Pickets Close Mines In Coal Fields

Fairless Defends U.S. Steel Price Boosts

Washington, Jan. 24—(P)—President Benjamin Fairless of U.S. Steel testified today that rising costs for labor, pensions and other items were responsible for driving up the price of steel.

If costs come down, he said, U.S. Steel will certainly consider lowering its prices.

Countering the widely-held theory that steel prices serve as a barometer for prices in other industries, Fairless contended that the recent boost in steel prices should have "no harmful effect whatsoever" on prices in other fields.

"The decreases in automobile prices—which were announced after our price increase—is a case in point," he said.

Fairless appeared as the first witness in a four-day series of public hearings called by the Senate-House economic committee to investigate steel prices and their effects on the national economy.

Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) of the joint committee said all major steel companies followed the lead of U.S. Steel after Fairless' "Big Steel" hiked its prices an average of $4 a said.

ton last December.

The committee has produced figures showing that the total net income of 50 steel companies soared from $264,525,016 in 1946 to $542,085,610 in 1948.

But Fairless told the committee today that U.S. Steel has not made "a fair return either on its sales or investment at any time during the last 20 years."

"It has paid constantly increasing wages to its employees and supplied constantly improved products to its customers," he said. "But its stockholders, whose earnings provide the facilities with which wages can be earned and goods can be produced, have received very inadequate returns on their investments."

Among U.S. Steel's increased costs, he listed:

1. New insurance and pension programs for steel workers $67,500,000.

2. Increased federal social security tax, $3,400,000.

"These costs alone are $3.88 per ton and more than enough to offset the $3.82 per ton which we hope to obtain from our price increases," he said.

Okays Sherman As Navy's Top Admiral

Washington, Jan. 24—(P)—The senate confirmed Admiral Forrest P. Sherman as the Navy's top admiral today after hearing a Republican's demand for the impeachment of Navy Secretary Matthews as "completely incompetent."

Sherman, at 53, is the youngest chief of Naval operations in American history.

Succeeds Adm. Denfeld

He succeeds Admiral Louis E. Denfeld who was fired by President Truman last Oct. 27 at Matthews' request. The ouster came 14 days after Denfeld had testified before the House armed services committee that policies insisted upon by high officers of the Air Force and Army were weakening the Navy's striking power.

Matthews has denied that Denfeld was removed because of his congressional testimony.

Sherman was confirmed by a shouted chorus of "ayes." There was little opposition to him in the preceding debate, but Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) angrily told his colleagues that if the senate had the right to impeach, then it should impeach Matthews.

Senator Holland (D-Fla.), acting Democratic floor leader, promptly rebuffed McCarthy.

Judges If Improper

The Florida senator said it was "highly improper" for a member of the senate, who would sit as a judge in any impeachment action brought by the House, to suggest impeachment and say what the charges would be.

Under the U.S. constitution, the House has the sole power to originate an impeachment. The senate sits as the trial board.

McCarthy listed four counts in his impeachment demand against Matthews:

1. "Untruthfulness" before a senate committee.

2. "Completely incompetent" to perform the duties of Secretary of the Navy.

3. "Complete disloyalty" to the Navy.

4. Enforcing "a new and dangerous rule" which McCarthy said means that if a Navy officer testifies before a congressional committee and tells the truth he must take the consequences.

Alton Board Bars Negroes In Switch To 'White' Schools

Alton, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—The Alton district Board of Education announced today it would not permit a wholesale transfer of negro students to a junior high school and grade schools used by whites. It said such a transfer would "necessitate an entire revamping of facilities and instructors."

About 175 negroes tried to make the switch yesterday, and the movement continued today—as a consequence of a mass meeting last week. Supp. J. B. Johnson put them off. He said he would make a policy announcement later.

In a statement today the board said that in denying the requests it "adopted the only policy which it feels is fair and just to all applicants for transfers at this time, since an orderly and just determination of them is impossible."

Number Of Idle Now At 75,000

Pittsburgh, Jan. 24—(AP)—Roving pickets spread idleness through the soft coal fields today, raising the number of striking miners to nearly 75,000.

About 14,000 more diggers joined the "no contract no work" walkout. The bulk of them are in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, the two largest coal producing states.

Miners who balked at facing pickets are among those who tried this week to oblige United Mine officials' appeals for a return to work.

More than 90,000 refused to work last week in apparent dissatisfaction over miners' failure to get a new contract. They also went on work five days a week. They've been on a three day week on John L. Lewis' orders.

Picket motor cavalcades journeyed into Central Pennsylvania, which has been hit only lightly in the new strike. Some 4,200 miners in a three-county area near Johnstown were idled. Most of them work for the big Rochester and Pittsburgh Coal company. Other mines were forced to shut down near Pittsburgh.

A big band of pickets in Southwestern Pennsylvania literally put the bite on working miners near Uniontown. A miner reported the pickets confiscated the men's lunches—and ate them on the spot. The picketed miners stopped work.

50 Cars of Picket

A caravan of 50 picket filled autos swooped down on West Virginia mines still at work. Sheriff Fitzhugh Reynolds of Harrison county said two mines were closed. A pickets' road block halted traffic for almost two hours near Lumberport.

Other mines were shutdown by pickets near Wheeling and Fairmont. The new closings raised the total West Virginia idle from 12,000 to 14,000.

Officers of UMW locals near Fairmont were invited to a Thursday meeting at Grant town to determine future action.

The continued strike brought new suffering to miners' families, threats of a coal shortage and a steel cut-back.

The Wisconsin coal bureau said coal piles on dock along the entire west shore of Lake Michigan "are running dangerously low." Bureau officials said the shortage would be more acute except for recent unseasonably warm weather.

Official Sees Drop In Farm Equipment Buying This Year

Chicago, Jan. 24—(P)—An Allis-Chalmers official said today that farm equipment buying may decline this year because of less farm income, but two other factors may cushion any drop in sales.

W. A. Roberts, executive vice president of Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing company, Milwaukee, told the national credit conference of the American Bankers Association that the two factors are:

1. Farmers have not yet caught up in their buying with the technological progress made in farm machinery in the last 20 years.

2. The sound extension of bank credit for financing purchases. He said this means down payments up to 33 1/3 per cent and paying of the balance as the farmer's income justifies.

He said he believes construction and road building equipment sales this year will be equal or be greater than last year's.

Farm income, he reported, is running now at about 20 per cent less than the 1948 peak, and net income is down more than 50 per cent. Without the cushioning factors, he said, this would mean considerably lower farm machinery sales volume than during the previous two years.

KANKAKEE TEEN-AGERS HEAT DANCE HALLS

Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 24—(P)—Kankakee's Park District doesn't have enough coal to heat five fieldhouses for "teen-age dances—so the kids are bringing their own."

They raid coal bins at their homes and haul the fuel in buckets to the weekly dancing parties.

ICC MAY CUT COAL BURNING TRAINS AGAIN

Washington, Jan. 24—(P)—Chairman J. Monroe Johnson of the Interstate Commerce Commission indicated today that another cut in coal-burning train service may be in the offing.

Johnson said the railroads are now down to an average 15-day supply of coal.

As a conservation measure, the ICC early this month ordered a one-third reduction in coal-burning passenger services.

What It Means: Housekeeping On Capitol Hill

By Clarke Beach

Washington — The capitol building isn't just another government office building. It's an institution. The way it is run is fearfully and wonderfully complicated. Duties and customs are all rooted in tradition, and nobody knows how all the traditions got started.

Everybody on Capitol Hill is a stickler for that part of the Constitution which makes the House and Senate completely independent of each other. Old timers on one side of the capitol know almost nothing about how the other side runs its affairs. And they don't want to know, because they realize it is none of their business.

Janitor service on the Senate side of the capitol comes under the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate. On the House side it is under the door-keeper of the House. But the dividing line between the areas they have to sweep and swab never becomes a constitutional issue because the center chamber of the capitol, the rotunda, is kept clean by the architect of the capitol.

If you are a representative and are having trouble with the telephone service, it depends on whether you are a Democrat or Republican whom you call. The House has a majority manager of telephones and a minority manager of telephones. There are also assistant majority and minority telephone managers.

If you don't like the Senate's famous bean soup, you take it up with the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration. It's in charge of the restaurants and cafeterias on the Senate side. The House, however, has given the architect of the capitol the job of running its eating facilities.

If you have a suggestion to improve the barber and beauty shops on the Senate side, you just call up the sergeant-at-arms. Representatives have to remember that the door-keeper runs those shops on the House side of the capitol and in the old House office building but that the barber shop in the new House office building is run by the architect.

Incidentally, if you are a senator you can save yourself a dime by getting your hair cut on the House side. It costs only 50 cents there, and on the Senate side it's 60 cents. The reason the price is relatively cheap on both sides is that the barbers get free rent in return for maintaining strict price control.

When you want to get fixed up with office space on the Senate side you just call the Rules and Administration committee. For space in the House Office Buildings you get in touch with the House Office Building commission. But if you or your committee want to be allotted a room on the House side of the capitol, you have to get it through the speaker of the house.

When pay day comes, if you are a representative you get your check from the sergeant-at-arms, but your clerks and secretaries get theirs from the House disbursing clerk. If you are a senator you get paid by the same man who pays your employees—the financial clerk of the Senate.

Everybody gets paid by check except employees on the Senate side. They get cash in an envelope. Members of the House have to keep one other little tradition in mind—the mace. If they make a fuss on the floor the sergeant-at-arms carries the mace over to the desks, and that's supposed to quiet them down. He doesn't hit them with it. It's just a symbol of authority. If you are a senator you don't have to worry about this. The Senate doesn't have any mace.

What It Means: The Insemination Birth Problem

BY CLARKE BEACH

Washington — What right has a doctor to take a life? That's one of the physician's oldest, legal and moral problems. What right has a doctor to help create life? That's a fairly new problem for medical men. The modern techniques of artificial insemination created it. Churchmen and lawyers for centuries have argued about "mercy killings," such as the one for which I. Hermann N. Sander was recently indicted at Manchester, N. H. Problems involving their property rights could become enormously complex. In criminal prosecutions of civil litigation over these issues, doctors could become involved as agents or accessories. Both medical and legal men have done a lot of thinking and worrying about the possibilities. Actually there has been very little court action regarding artificial insemination—but that very fact leaves the physician all the more in the dark as to his rights and liabilities. Doctors who perform an artificial insemination often view it as an act of mercy or charity. A couple long frustrated in their hope for children come to him with the plea to enable the wife to have a child. It is often

THE STORY: Seeking a job as literary secretary to Mrs. Muriel Hallick, who writes popular novels under the name of "Jo Pine," Alice Pine goes to the Hallick home, at the end of Grosvenor Point, Conn., off Long Island Sound. Alice is pleased both with the surroundings and Mrs. Hallick, who says she wants more than "just a stenographer." Alice has just given Mrs. Hallick her background and her age, which is 22.

MURIEL HALLECK drummed her fingers on the table. "Would it surprise you, Miss Pine, if I engaged you? Right now?" Alice Pine started. She hadn't expected to land the job so easily. But Muriel continued: "Why not? I think you'd be perfect. And your references are splendid. But do you have any questions of your own?"

"No," Alice said. "I ought to say, though, that the salary you mentioned is pretty—well, terrific." Muriel waved a quick decisive gesture. "Not for what I want. Listen! For years I've written stuff that editors and the public expected me to write. But now I'm blowing myself to the luxury of a novel. Something I really want to do. I need the right kind of help. And I'm willing to pay for it."

"Well," Alice said slowly, "if you're sure you really want me, I'm ready to work for you." "You mean now?" Alice smiled. "Perhaps I was rather overconfident. But I packed a bag, on the chance that I might be staying. The other things I'll need can be sent up."

Muriel Hallick arose. She dropped a friendly arm around Alice's shoulders. "Why, that's splendid. I hadn't hoped... Oh, my dear! I'm forgetting. You've had a long drive. What would you like? Tea? A drink?"

"Tea, please," Alice said. She felt a little stunned. A plush job had fallen into her lap, with scarcely any selling effort on her part.

TEA was a pleasant interlude on a flagstone terrace beneath the study window. After it Muriel conducted Alice upstairs to a large airy bedroom.

"I hope you'll be comfortable here," she said. "In any case, it's private. You have your own bath, and my room and Brent's is miles away."

"Comfortable?" Alice looked at luxurious appointments and colorful drapes. "I should think so. It's lovely."

"Well, make yourself at home. Dinner's at seven-thirty. We have it late because of Brent. He's an unpredictable artist. He does a lot of his work outdoors and never comes home till the last whistle."

"I'm used to artists," Alice said. "We had plenty of them around the advertising agency."

"Then you know that they're no conception of time. Now I'll leave you for a while. I usually have a nap before dinner. Maybe you'd like one yourself?"

"If you don't mind, I'd rather walk around outside. And see the beach."

ALICE changed into a gray flannel sports suit and aquamarine pullover and went downstairs. She presently discovered a formal garden that promised a virtual flower show later on. A grizzled individual in dirty corduroys was digging therein. He regarded her with neither interest nor approval and did not speak. He looked rather surly, Alice thought. But she had no time this afternoon for surly gardeners. She felt both contented and elated. It was miraculous to have stepped so quickly from a good-paying job into a better-paying one. And Grosvenor Point, Conn., would be an ideal spot in which to spend the summer.

"Miss Pine," she told herself, aloud and gaily, "it's your day out." She walked toward the beach, enjoying the salty tang of the Sound.

Then, on the beach itself, she stopped. A small boy of about four had come into view, running along the water's edge. He had hair the color of pulled taffy and a compact little body. At intervals he paused to kick delightedly at curlers of white spume infiltrating the shore. As Alice watched, one kick was too vigorous. He sat down abruptly, to the confusion of his blue play suit.

Alice moved forward. "Hello, there!" The youngster scrambled up. His cheeks were like ripe apples; his eyes large and brown.

"You're not Muriel," he said, almost accusingly. "Muriel?" Alice repeated. "I... Or, I see who—"

She didn't finish. A voice from behind said: "I imagine I should put up a sign here, too."

Alice whipped around, upon a tall man in tweed slacks and frayed sports jacket. He had black hair slightly gray-flecked, and dark unsmiling eyes.

"Oh!" she exclaimed. "I... Didn't see the sign, eh?" He pointed to where the road along which she had driven became a dead-end. "Sound. Well, it's over there. Perhaps I'd better have it blown up into a billboard—against the usual summer invasion."

He spoke in proprietary manner and Alice chanced a guess. "But, of course, you're Mr. Hallick?" He nodded. "Yes, Brent Hallick."

Hastily, Alice explained herself. "So?" Hallick did not seem amused at the little misunderstanding. "Well, my wife's been talking about getting a secretary. But I didn't know she'd actually done it. My apologies, Miss Pine. You see, Tulliver—that's the village here—is a summer resort. And sometimes visitors try to use this beach. I thought you were an early visitor."

Brent's jaw jutted. "It's not that I want to hug the country's natural playgrounds. But, after all, this is my property."

THE small boy had been inspecting Alice curiously. "She's not Muriel," he told Brent now.

"No," said Brent. "She's Miss Pine and she's staying at our house. Say 'how-do-you-do?' Rick."

Rick did so gravely, then darted back toward the water, raising sand flurries in his wake.

Brent looked after him. "He meant my wife, of course. But 'Muriel' is beyond him."

"He's adorable," Alice said. "Is he your son?"

Brent's thick dark brows lifted. "Muriel didn't tell you?"

"About Rick? No. I'm afraid we talked work, to the exclusion of everything else."

"Oh! Well, Rick—short for Richard—is my brother's child." He paused, frowning. "My brother and his wife were killed three years ago in a plane crash. So we took Rick, adopted him."

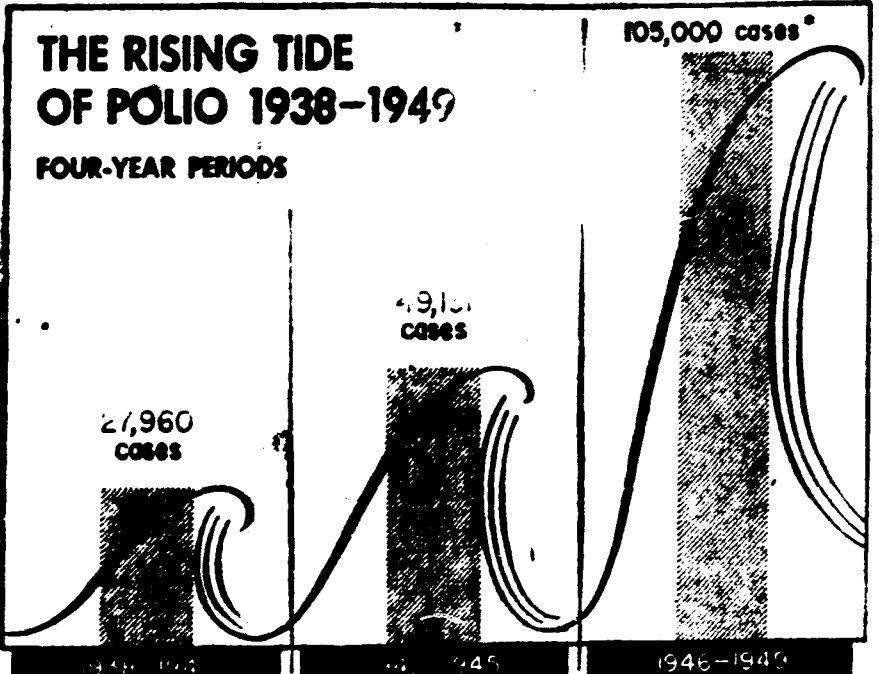

He sounded matter-of-fact, impersonal. And Alice felt herself move, involuntarily, a little away from him. Something about this man repelled her.

"Well, that was a wonderful thing to do," she said, somewhat embarrassedly.

He shrugged and, for the first time, she noticed a peculiarity in the set of his shoulders. They seemed to sag inordinately, as if he had practiced relaxing them until they gave almost a suggestion of limpness. "You do what you have to do," he said shortly. "Shall we go up to the house?"

"Yes," said Alice. With Rick at her side she followed him.

The chart above tells the graphic story of how infantile paralysis has surged upward—more than 182,000 cases in the past 12 years. With mounting polio incidence has come a sharp rise in the costs of providing medical care for the stricken. It is for this reason that the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis faces a crisis during its March of Dimes campaign this January. Help meet the rising tide of polio by contributing generously to the March of Dimes.

MACHINE-AGE PERIL—Shadow, the black cat, looks as if he expects a nice meal from the inhabitants of this guinea cage. But let him take one bite and he'll have a mouthful of nuts and bolts. The birds are metal and mechanical, singing at the turn of a crank. Both cat and cage arrived at La Guardia Field from Paris.

FOREST SEEDS PROTECTED—Sacramento, Calif.—(AP)—Seedling areas wrecked by forest fires has been difficult because birds and rodents eat the seeds. Dr. W. E. Howard of the University of California tells how new methods save the seeds. They are painted yellow to discourage the birds and poisoned to stop the rodents. Other colors discourage more birds, but yellow is easy to use, he says. Experts are still seeking to improve these methods. Some birds eat the yellow seeds and are poisoned. It is hoped that rodent repellents rather than poison may be used.

DOPE GROWERS PROTEST COMPETITION—Beirut, Lebanon—(AP)—Hashish growers in Syria and Lebanon are finding competition from Israel pretty tough, they say. The paper "Elsahafi Elateh" says prices have dropped from 600 Egyptian pounds ($1,500) for 12 kilograms to 50 pounds.

Hashish is a form of dope. It is illegal to produce it, but high profits tempt growers. It is smuggled by camel, sailing boats and planes into Egypt.

MAKING A BRAVE RECOVERY

Doris Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holt, 316 Lurton street, is making a determined comeback from the effects of polio.

The March of Dimes is helping Doris to walk again, as the photograph shows.

Doris fell victim of polio in July last year. She was hospitalized at St. John's hospital from July to December, 1949, where she received expert care and treatment. The fund raised each year for care and treatment of infantile paralysis victims started her on the road to recovery.

The Holt girl is now a pupil in the crippled children's room at Washington school. A number of other Morgan county children have been aided in the same way.

Money contributed by the public during the March of Dimes goes for the care and treatment of polio victims such as Doris. That is why the Jacksonville community is asked to be especially generous during the campaign this year. Doris and other children are walking again because the public cares, and is helping with its dimes and dollars.

Ald. Kenneth Woods, Former Sheriff, Dies After Brief Illness

Kenneth Woods, alderman from the third ward, and a former sheriff of Morgan county, died Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at Our Saviour's hospital after a brief illness. He was 57 years old.

Mr. Woods underwent an operation for relief from hernia about ten days ago, from which he appeared to make rapid recuperation. He had returned to the family residence, 815 East College avenue, where he suffered a relapse Sunday. He reentered the hospital Monday afternoon.

Mr. Woods was one of the best-known men in the community. He served in public office with the interest of the public at heart. A member of the Democratic party, he enjoyed the high esteem of all who knew him.

While serving as sheriff from 1934 to 1938, Mr. Woods and other officers surprised thieves who were stealing coal from the C. B. & Q. railroad cars southeast of the city. Sheriff Woods was shot in one of his arms and suffered for many months from the injury. His assailant was captured and served a term in prison.

First Term In Council

Mr. Woods was a genial man who made friends readily. He was a valued member of the city council, in which he was serving his first term.

The decedent was born May 24, 1892, southeast of Franklin, the son of William J. and Orlena Craft Woods. He was united in marriage with Miss Dorothy Jolly on April 19, 1915.

Surviving are his wife; one son, Arthur L. Woods, a member of the Jacksonville police department; his mother, Mrs. Orlena Woods of Franklin, and one grandson, Kenneth Halbert Woods. His father and three brothers, John, Iven and Ervin, preceded him in death.

He was a member of the Franklin Christian church. After moving to this city in 1926 he was a regular attendant at services at Centenary Methodist church.

Legion Past Commander

He was a veteran of the first World War, and was a past commander of Jacksonville Post 279, American Legion. He was a member of the Modern Woodman lodge of Franklin and the Elks lodge of this city.

For several years Mr. Woods served as a member of the Selective Service board. Later he accepted a position as teller at the Farmers State bank, which he held at the time of death.

The remains are at the Williamson Funeral Home where the family will meet friends Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Centenary church, in charge of Rev. John W. Collins. Interment will be made in the Franklin cemetery.

White Hall Couple Feted On 32nd Anniversary

White Hall—Mrs. Harold Milnes was hostess at her home on Sunday with a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Otis Neighbors and son Lyle, honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Neighbors. It was also the 32nd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Neighbors. Mrs. Neighbors is the former Lettie Eastham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eastham and Mr. Neighbors is the son of Mrs. John Griffin all of White Hall. The couple were married Jan. 22, 1917, at the Carrollton Presbyterian Manse, by Rev. Guy Smock, pastor of the church at that time. A beautifully decorated cake with the names "Lettie and Otis" adorned the center of the dinner table.

Mrs. Addie Batty and Mrs. Loretta Rutherford left for Indianapolis, Ind., on Friday. Their sister, Mrs. Pauline Smith, who has been seriously ill, returned home with them for an indefinite visit.

Two Jacksonville Colleges Listed In Approved List

Illinois and MacMurray colleges are included in Good Housekeeping magazine's annual report on small colleges, published in the February issue. The report has been prepared under the supervision of James W. Hampton, who edited a similar survey published in last April's edition of the magazine.

The report was prepared to show "that it is possible for a worthy boy or girl to obtain a thorough training in a first-rate college at moderate expenditure." Hampton says in the preface. Colleges selected for the survey are those with high academic standing, with enrollments of fewer than 2,000 students, and with a total basic cost of less than $1,000 for tuition, room and board combined.

Mention is made of activities at both of the local colleges in the text of the article.

MARCH WHEAT HOLDS STEADY IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Jan. 24.—(P)—March wheat held steady during today's Board of Trade session, but other deliveries encountered some selling pressure.

The nearby contract found support in some export business and advance of 15 cents a hundredweight in domestic flour scheduled for tomorrow.

Corn was inclined to ease, although the trade had reports of overnight export business. Rye was the softest spot on the board and its action was an influence on other grains, although traders said there was no great selling pressure in any pit.

Receipts were: wheat 9 cars, corn 63, oats 13, rye 2, barley 19, soybeans 2.

Toward the finish considerable buying developed in soybeans and at the close wheat was unchanged to 14 higher than yesterday's close, March $2.12 1/2. Corn was 4 higher to 4 lower, March 71 1/2. Rye was 4 to 1 cent lower, May $1.35 1/4. Soybeans were 11 lower to 14 higher, March $2.31 1/2 and soybean oil was unchanged to 2 cents a hundredweight lower, March $10.65.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

FROM THE FARM TO THE MUSEUM?—Rep. Reid Murray (R., Wis.), shares his grief with Rosie, over congressional repeal of oleomargarine taxes. The dairy state congressman claims the new tax relief, plus large government subsidies on oleo ingredients, will possibly destroy the cow as well as the dairy business.

Plant Growing Experiments Set Up At Carbondale

Carbondale, Ill., Jan. 24.—(P)—A new project for experiments in plant growing will be set up here.

It will be the first cooperative arrangement between Southern Illinois University and the University of Illinois. Southern's president told 200 growers at a Southern Illinois Horticultural society meeting last night.

Dr. Delvite W. Morris said Southern will provide land and laboratories and the University of Illinois will provide personnel and plants.

Most of the work would be on breeding peaches, apples and pears but other plant experiments would also be undertaken.

Dr. Charles Birkeland of the University of Illinois said that school's Olney tree experimental farm would be closed in two years, leaving the new Carbondale station the only state experimental set up in southern Illinois.

The new station would also deal with orchid nutrition, pest control, pruning, and experiments with vegetables and ornamental plants. It would be used for student field work and observation by private growers.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Jan. 24.—(P)—Severe cutbacks in fresh receipts sent most livestock to the scales at steady to 50 cents higher prices today. Hogs were 25 to 50 cents up, cattle steady to 50 cents more, but sheep were steady to 50 cents lower, the decline coming in heavy lambs.

A load of mostly choice steers appeared in the scant run at $35 and two loads grading good to choice brought $31.50 to $33.50. The remainder ran largely to medium and good fed steers at $22.50 to $28.50 and comparable heifers at $21.50 to $27. A package of good to choice heifers went to $28. Beef cows took $18.50 downward, sausage bulls $20.50 and below, and choice vealers topped at $32.

Light lambs took the top of the market at $24.75, or steady, but two loads averaging 112 pounds sold for $23. Ewes were fully steady at $12.50 downward.

Estimated receipts included 11,000 hogs, 4,000 cattle, 400 calves, and 2,500 sheep.

8 Chicagoans Make Money By Chopping Up 3 Million A Day

Chicago, Jan. 24.—(P)—Eight Chicagoans, working under a guard system that makes radar look like a linker toy, today destroyed $3,000,000.

Tomorrow they'll destroy $3,000,000 more. And the next day. And the next. And so on through the working year.

The head headed by Otto Netterstrom, work at the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank. Their job is to destroy old and worn out currency by chopping it. The remains are reprocessed into monetary paper.

They work in the second basement of the massive building near the southwest corner of the loop. Between them and the public are 72 guards armed with revolvers, tear gas, machine guns, and grenades. Overlooking the lobby floor are two pillboxes.

Loiterers on the sidewalk outside are kept constantly in view via periscope. And inside, one push button will lock all doors.

Bills sent in by 1004 member banks are destroyed under these guards—if they've passed their useful life. The bank also keeps about $11,504,000,000 in securities and cash.

Do the Brink's robbers want to try it?

Curry Stone and Horace Ashenfelter, former Penn State distance running stars, still practice on the campus and will run in 1950 meets.

McCloy Ready To Meet Revival Of Nationalism

Washington, Jan. 24.—(P)—High Commissioner John J. McCloy says he is ready to crack down "swiftly and firmly" if a dangerous revival of nationalism should develop in western Germany.

While expressing confidence that pro-Western Democratic elements will prevail, McCloy acknowledged in a report on his first six months in Germany, there is peril from the extremists—especially if they join forces with Soviet Russia.

His view is that the United States, Britain and France retain "ample powers" in setting up the Bonn regime to deal with any threat. They have authority to intervene directly, and can deny further concessions to west German government, he noted.

"If necessary, I would not hesitate to apply these remedies swiftly and firmly," McCloy declared last night.

McCloy gave a progress report in a radio address after conferences with President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson following his arrival for a week's stay in the capital.

Holy Cross Rated Top College Five By Big Margin In AP Poll

New York, Jan. 24.—(P)—Unbeaten Holy Cross came out on top today by a huge margin as the country's No. 1 college basketball team in the fourth weekly Associated Press poll.

The Crusaders, winners of 14 games, collected 118 out of a possible 166 first place votes in capturing the first spot for the second straight time.

Sports writers and broadcasters from coast to coast named Duquesne for second place. The Pittsburgh Duquesne, only other undefeated major five (13-0), received only four first place nominations in jumping from last week's sixth spot.

Long Island (13-2) stayed in third position, even though North Carolina State whipped the Brooklyn five last week. Clair Bee's Blackbirds convinced 10 voters they're the nation's best.

By sections, here's how they fared in the top ten:

East, 6, Midwest, 2, South, 2.

Here's the second 10:

Midwest, 5, Far West, 2, Rocky Mountain, 1.

South, 1, East, 1.

Kentucky (11-4), loser of three of its last five starts, moved up a notch to fourth. Notre Dame handed Adolph Rupp his latest defeat last night, 64-51. Six voted for Kentucky as the No. 1 five.

St. John's of Brooklyn, leader in the first two polls, fell from second to fifth. The Redmen (15-2) received six first-place ballots.

Bradley (16-3) finished sixth. With eight first-place nods, the speedy Braves were upset by Detroit Saturday, a major factor in dropping them from fourth.

LaSalle of Philadelphia (11-3) climbed to seventh place from last week's 10th. The Explorers have won their last seven, including four tough ones in western Kentucky, in Green 24 and Colorado 20.

Scott Steagall

Spearheading the Millikin basketball assault when the Big Blue quintet invades Jacksonville for a crucial Little Nine conference test with Illinois College Saturday night will be veteran Center Bud Ormond and the flashy Scott Steagall of all-conference fame.

Ormond, 6-5 center, is the old man of the team at 26. A senior he's a Decatur high school product.

Steagall, who blasted Blueboy hopes for a CCI crown last season with a 33 point performance against the Jacksonville gang at Decatur, is a junior and playing his third year with the Millikin varsity.

He enrolled at Millikin a 17-year-old unknown in the basketball world and shot to fame as a high-scoring forward. From Stewardson, Ill., he's the youngest man on the starting five.

Carrollton Downs St. John's 58-41

Carrollton—Leading all the way, Dick Hamann's Carrollton Hawks quintet downed St. John's of Carrollton 58-41 here last night.

Logan led nine Carrollton scorers with 14 points. B. Casleton racked up 21 tallies for St. John's.

Thirteen File For Sheriff Job

Woodstock, Ill., Jan. 24.—(P)—Sheriff Fred Bau, a Republican, cannot succeed himself, but there are plenty of candidates anxious to run for his McHenry county office.

Eleven Republicans and two Democrats had filed nomination petitions before the deadline passed yesterday.

Democratic candidates are Arthur Desmond, Woodstock, and John McCarthy, McHenry.

Republican candidates are Henry Muller and Fred Nelson, both of Marengo; Howard Goodard, Hartland; George Jedlicka and Harry Herendeen, both of Crystal Lake; Walter F. Saha, Charles Corey, Lyle Hutchison, Lynn Mervin, Arthur Greene and Donald Hackman, all of Woodstock.

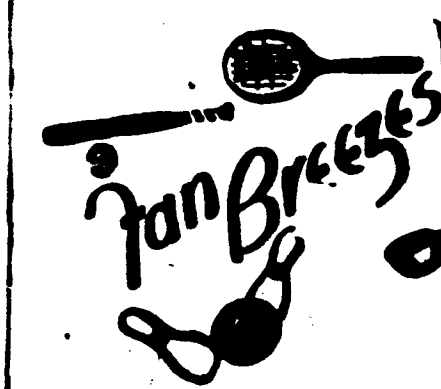

DECATUR MAN, NEPHEW GRADUATE IN SAME CLASS

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 24.—(P)—Albert E. Sablotny, 36, and his nephew, Roy A. Stroyeck, 26, both of Decatur, will be among the 109 students to be graduated from James Millikin university's first midyear graduation ceremonies on Thursday.

War 11 will receive bachelor of science degrees. Both are married and both are graduates of Decatur high school. In addition, both majored in accounting at the university and both finished with high grade averages.

James Millikin established an extra commencement ceremony because of the large number of students enrolled.

Charles Evans, Jr., who won the Western Open golf tourney in 1918, is the only amateur ever to win that title.

By Bob Morris

Like the rabbit at a dog track, Mt. Vernon's Rams are almost mechanical in their campaign to defend their state high school basketball title. Led by mighty Max Hooper, the Rams have butted over 17 opponents in a row to date and are far ahead in the Associated Press downstate poll.

The state champions are well on their way towards duplicating Taylorville's undefeated feat—45 straight victories and a state title in '44. That is if they can overcome the repeating champion jinx that has hexed prep quintets for many moons.

Glenn Smith, cagey Pittsfield basketball mentor, says he can't see past Quincy high as this sector's representative to the "Sweet Sixteen" classic in March. His defending sectional champion Sauksee tribe was massacred 72-38 by the Blue Devils last week.

We'd better unlimb our horse now and put him before the cart, 'stead of vice-versa. We're due for quite a few more hardwood tumbles and another cold spell before the state finals are set to go.

Pickles Mitchell, aggressive Waverly ball-hawk, missed establishing a new single-game scoring record in the Winchester tournament by seven points (Bill Volles of Carrollton hit for 36 counters during a tourney contest in 1947) but he rang up a four-game mark of 87 tallies that won't be equalled or surpassed for quite some time—unless they enlarge and lower the baskets. He averaged 21.75 points in the four games his team played at Scott county. Not bad for an appetizer.

Favorites Have Trouble With Underdog Perry, Chambersburg Quints

Games Tonight
Chapin vs. Mercedia (7:15 p.m.)
ISD vs. Bluffs (8:45 p.m.)

Favorites met with plenty of tough competition in the opening session of the PMBC conference tournament at ISD last night but managed to survive after stiff tests with underdog quintets.

Mt. Sterling, picked to win the annual event, had its hands full with a battling Chambersburg outfit but managed to rally in the late minutes and move to the semifinals of the eight-team meet with a 46-41 victory.

The third-seeded Routt Rockets, after trailing for most of the game, poured on the coal in the last three minutes and eliminated the hot-shooting Perry Pioneers 41-38 in the second first-round tussle last night.

Chapin meets Mercedia and the ISD host five plays Bluffs to wind up first-round activity this evening. Mt. Sterling and Routt will tangle in the first semi-final contest Thursday night.

Though the inaugural battles were close, the medium-sized crowd wasn't particularly impressed with the style of basketball displayed.

Mt. Sterling Tired

Mt. Sterling was definitely tired after taking the Winchester tournament crown last week. Added to the fact that Al Robinson, their speedy captain, was disabled with a lame ankle at the opening tip-off, the highly touted Hornets were slow-moving and consistently outgassed by the scrappy defending champions from the Burg.

Robinson's ankle was badly sprained but Assistant Coach T. P. McKinnin claimed that the play-directing guard would be back in action Thursday.

Mt. Sterling led Chambersburg 18-13 at the half, but only 32-30 going into the final quarter. Chambersburg substitute B. Crawford was sent into the fray midway through the third period and tossed in three straight long shots and added a pair of free throws to aid the Raider cause considerably. B. Gordley took up the fight for the Burgers early in the fourth quarter and helped his club pass Mt. Sterling 41-36 with four minutes of play remaining.

Hornet substitute Burkey tossed in four points and Dick McClelland added six to bring Mt. Sterling out of its slump and keep the favorites in the race.

Routt Stars Cold

The second game was much the same story. Paul Strouds favored Routt Rockets fell behind a red-hot Perry gang 13-5 in the opening chapter.

Sonny Lonergan brought the local out of their doldrums in the second period and helped them go ahead of the underdogs 17-15 at halftime. Dick Casler knotted the count at 15-15 with a gift shot and Captain A. J. Spreen hit from the field as the half ended.

Routt stumbled again in the third chapter and lagged the surprising Pioneers 29-27 at the rest period.

The score changed hands three times in the final canto. Spreen hit from the foul line to knot the count at 31-31. Perry pushed ahead 33-31 before Sellers and Casler put Routt back in the lead with a gift toss and 4 field goal.

After Perry knotted the count once more at 34-34, Routt pulled ahead on field goals by Casler and Lonergan and three quick points by Hinky Henry, leading Rocket scorer, to move into the semi-finals opposite Maurice Root's Hornet aggregation.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

"UNDER THE SPREADING CHESTNUT TREE..." In the fiftieth year of this automobile century, the village blacksmith still holds forth. You will find him near the race track, in the rural communities, and occasionally even in the big city. The village smith was, and probably still is, the most rugged of free enterprisers. In his unfloored shop there is the clang of hammer on anvil, the wheezing of the hand bellows and the roar of the coal fire, the acrid smell of burning hoof, the hissing of cold water when a red-hot horseshoe is plunged into it. The brawny blacksmith—not so numerous as he once was; perhaps not quite so prosperous as his dad and granddad who did their smithing in the very same shop—is still a nostalgic part of the American hometown scene.

According to announcement made Tuesday afternoon the local postoffice will receive bids for mail messenger until January 30, 1950.

The messenger will haul mail between the local postoffice and the Union Station for Gulf, Mobile & Ohio and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy trains.

Sangamon Pastor M'Murray Chapel Service Speaker

Rev. Edwin Ziegler, D. D., minister of the Westminster Presbyterian church of Springfield, was the speaker at the MacMurray College chapel service Tuesday morning. Dr. Ziegler's address was on the subject "Marching To the Beat of Another Drum."

Dr. Ziegler pointed out that most of us are sensitive to public opinion because we want to be in style. "A great deal of education is the process of molding us to fit into that pattern or style. In spite of the fact that we may not like the world in which we happen to be we may as well make the best of it; but we have to admit that public opinion is not altogether bad. Without fitting into some of the patterns around us we would not be preserving some of the good things of life."

Had it not been for the men who marched to the step of another drum, however, we would still be living in the past ages, the speaker asserted. "Every trace of social progress can be traced back to someone who refused to bend himself to existing conditions merely for the sake of it. It is no different in the field of religion. Christianity started with a person who got out of step with the beat of his time. In fact, Christianity is and always has been out of step with much that has existed in its age."

"The entire purpose of Christianity is that we are called to be ethically better. It is the business of the Christian to fight against the undercurrent and to resist the pressure of evil. It is his business to get out of step with custom and march to the beat of another drum, that which began beating 1900 years ago and beats just as surely now."

Advertisers Told They Underrate Power Of Papers

Chicago, Jan. 24.—(P)—Newspaper advertising executives were told today that even some of them underestimate the full power of the newspaper.

They were advised to "stop sniping at other media," such as magazines, radio and television, and "concentrate on selling the medium we've got."

Harold S. Barnes, director of the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, also told the newspaper advertising executives association's convention: "I can't help wondering whether all of us don't underestimate the power of the newspaper to attract and hold readers. Its power to sway people, its power to sell goods."

"None of us has done the most effective job of selling our medium that can be done. If we do, I'm sure that by Dec. 31, 1950, our gains of 1946, 1947 and 1948 will look very puny indeed."

Barnes said newspapers will meet unprecedented competition from other advertising methods during 1950 but will meet it successfully.

One hundred and thirty eight men of Woodson and the neighboring community were members of the Woodson Community Men's club during 1949, according to the report of Club Secretary A. D. Hermann, and more than half that number are already renewed for 1950.

The dinner was served this month by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. The next meeting will be on Thursday, Feb. 16, at the Christian church.
